Obituary

On February 25, 1948, Doris Moody Dixon was born in New York City to Christine and Willie Lee Dixon.

"Moody" as she was affectionately called was educated in the New York City Public School System. She worked briefly in the factory industry. However, her prized job was raising other people's kids. Moody loved kids. She was old school as she shaped and pinched all the kids heads and noses. Moody was known as Nanna to quite a few.

Doris was a sister to fifteen siblings, eight preceding her in death. She had two aunts and two uncles on her mother's side, all deceased. She leaves to mourn: her only born child, Sheila Denise Dixon of NYC; one son-in-law, Calvin Powell of NYC; one step-daughter, Andrea Hart; four grandsons, Anthony Dixon, Davon Harris, Jaleel Calhoun Payne and Amari Williams; one granddaughter, Lena Nicole; five surrogate grandchildren, Alicia, Tyriq, Shelby, Samson and Samara Harrington; three siblings on her mother's side, Clarence, Janice and Timothy Dixon, all from NYC; four siblings on her father's side, Cha Cha Lord, Wayne, Darryl and Lee Dixon, all of Atlanta, GA; one sister-in-law, Rene Dixon of NY; one step mother, Philixa Dixon of Atlanta, GA; her best friend, Lillian Harris; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Moody was an awesome cook and enjoyed feeding any and everyone. Her bark was loud, but she was a softie at heart. She was truly an awesome individual. You know she liked you if she gave you a nickname. She opened her doors to many although she had very little space of her own. She was generous to a fault. She was the life of the party and if you were in her presence you would surely be doubled over in laughter.

On November 18, 2016, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ called his child home. For he knew that Moody fought this battle long and hard, but the battle was not hers, it was the Lord's.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
