Obituary

Nina Drucilla Sills was born December 31, 1958 to Edwin Smith and the late Penina Sills. She departed this life on November 5, 2016. Her formative years were spent in Harlem. In 1971, the family moved to the Upper West Side. She resided there until her death.

She was educated in the public schools of New York and graduated from Washington Irving High School. She attended York College. Nina was employed as a summer intern and was given a job at Bernard Fineson Development Center as a Mental Health Therapy Aide. The job lasted for 40 years and she was awarded for appreciation, loyalty and dedication. In 2013, she retired.

Nina was a devout Catholic who attended Mass regularly at St. Gregory and Holy Name Catholic Church. Being a Christian and Catholic, she was taught to serve God and love her fellowman. She was politically active in her community. She was very involved in the Tenant Association in her building.

Nina is survived by: her father, Edwin Smith; sister, Yolanda Sills; two nieces, Wauneka Westry and Peni Denyse Roman; great nephew, Wakeen Westry; two aunts, Joann Smith and Bettie Crawford; two uncles, Johnnie Smith and Arthur Smith; special cousin, Robert Anderson; and a host of cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Penina, and sister, Denise Sills.

Change of Address

Dear Family and Friends,

I want you to know that I have moved. I received a call from God, the Chief Architect, who informed me that my new house is ready and I could move immediately. Well, my new home is finished and its such a beautiful sight to behold. It is located in an exclusive estate area and it sits behind a beautiful pearly gate.

There is peace, joy and happiness here with no more pain to bear, no strife or discontent. I could go on exploring around my new home but I have to get fitted for my wings. Let me give you my new address because I highly recommend you make plans to live here too.

Oh yeah! Let me tell you this , I don't have a telephone yet, but first call God. If you don't have His number, He is listed in the Good Book on every page. Contact Him.

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
