Obituary

Robert O'Neal was born October 17, 1947 to late parents, Robert and Theodosia O'Neal. He was the eldest of his four siblings, Patricia, Dorothy, and the late Theodosia and Gregory. He was raised on 125th Street and Amsterdam Avenue in Harlem, New York.

He attended Elementary School 125, Middle School 43 and Benjamin Franklin High School. After graduating he enlisted in the United States Army where he served his country in Korea. After his tour and upon his return he enrolled in Gannon College. There he met his future wife, Janet McDonald. The two gave birth to a daughter, Nicole. He had a love of education and went on to obtain his MBA. He worked for New York City and New York State throughout his career. He worked for the Department of Transportation, and became a staff analyst until he retired.

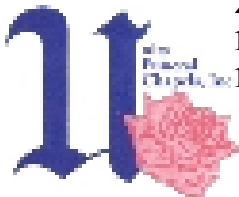

He leaves to mourn: his only child, Nicole O'Neal Bennett; his two sisters, Patricia O'Neal and Dorothy O'Neal; his aunt, Dorothy Parker; his niece, Dashika Wellington; nephews, Gregory O'Neal and Jaylen O 'Neal; three grandsons, Algernon Buffong, Deron Bennett and Dorien Bennett; as well as three great grandchildren, Jeremiah, Denzel and Synai. We love you and will miss you.
