Obituary

Allene Baker was born to the parents, the late Alice and Clarence Baker, Sr. Allene was raised in New York City where she graduated from the New York City public school system: P.S. 180, Wadleigh Junior High, Luis D. Brandeis High School and attended City College of the City University of New York.

Allene was employed for twenty years with the New York City Housing Authority where she recently retired. Allene came to know Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and maintained an ongoing relationship with God, spreading His love to others. Allene joined Kelly Temple Church of God in Christ many years ago and continued on her journey serving the Lord. Allene was a loving person, always willing to give to others, and always wanting to bring the family together.

She leaves to mourn: five sisters, Gladys, Alice, Susan, Dorothy, and Lorraine; four brothers, Larry, Glen, Michael, and Clarence, Jr.; a host of nieces and nephews who she loved dearly; and many good friends. Allene may have left our presence, but she will never be forgotten. She has left to join her mother, the late Alice Baker; her father, the late Clarence Baker, Sr.; and her oldest brother, the late James Fields.

We love you Allene. We will miss you. But you will forever be in our hearts. May you rest in the arms of our Heavenly Father.
