Reginald C. Shipman, affectionately known as “Reggie”, son of the late Daniel and Lemmie Shipman was born November 11, 1940 in Clarkton, North Carolina. Reggie departed this life on November 23, 2016.

Reggie attended Booker T. Washington High School in Clarkton, North Carolina, graduating in 1961. He then attended Livingstone College in Salisbury, North Carolina. It was here where he met and married the late Agnes Boone. As a result of this wonderful union, a son, Anthony O. Shipman was born. He was employed by Wakefern Food Corporation of Edison, NJ in the accounting department for 25 years.

During his early years, Reggie was a distinguished member of the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity, a Cub Scout Master, and the Little League Baseball Coach (Southward). Reggie was an avid bowler, a die hard Cowboy’s fan, and a lover of all things history. Reggie attended The Good Neighbor Baptist Church where he was a trustee. It was here that he met and married his beloved wife, Alexsis Shipman. He later faithfully attended The New Life Evangelistic Ministry church where his daughter-in-love is the pastor.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Alexsis Shipman, and his son, Anthony O. Shipman (Anita); sister, Elizabeth McCree (Johnnie) and brothers, Gordon Shipman (Mary Ann), Wendell Shipman (Gwendolyn); son-in-love, Earl Marshall; Daughter-in-love, Dorothy D. Solitude

I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside
Into the shadows where we could confide;
Away from the hustle where all the day long
I hurried and worried when active and strong.

I needed the quiet, though at first I rebelled,
But gently, so gently my cross He upheld,
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things,
Though weakened in body my spirit took wings
To height never dreamed of when active and gay,
He loved me so gently, He drew me away.

I needed the quiet, no prisoner of my bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessing instead;
A place to grow richer, in Jesus to hide
I needed the quiet, so he drew me aside.
