Obituary

Josephine Fogle was born on September 16, 1931 to the late Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Lee and Florence Howard. She departed from this life on Friday, November 18, 2016.

She was educated in Oaksboro County School System, North Carolina. Josephine loved her family and family was important to her. Josephine was known for her colorful sense of humor (people in the community loved her wit and laughter). Josephine was a fabulous cook and she loved to eat. She had a special fondness for cornbread and fatback. Josephine was not afraid to say what she meant and she was respected by all who knew her. She thought family and friends were important and if she liked you, you had a friend for life.

Her work experience included working in the communication industry with the phone company Ma Bell. Josephine moved to New York in the 1950's and moved to Harlem in the early sixties where she resided for the remainder of her life.

Preceding her in death is her brother, James Howard, her sister, Diane Leslie, her daughter, Gwendolyn Graves James, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie and Florence Howard, and the love of her life, P. O.

To cherish her memory she leaves behind three siblings, Beverly Brewer, Maxine Duff, and Bernard Howard, Sr. (Anna). Josephine also leaves behind her two longtime friends, Florence Lee and Barbara Kennedy; confidant, Gregory Rodriguez; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
