Obituary

Rosa Reyes was born on December 2, 1946 to Modesta Reyes and Tomas Giscome in Panama City, Panama where she attended school until she was fourteen and they moved to the United States with her father to Brooklyn, New York where she attended Bishop McDonnell Memorial High School where she graduated.

Rosa had a fondness for helping others. She wanted to be a nurse so she took jobs in the health field to learn more. But a few years later she started on her own family and brought five children into this world, Stephen, Irving, Marcello, Kisha and Tyeshia whom she loved dearly.

Rosa worked in the healthcare field for years, for H.C.I Prior Services and then for Salem Home Care services. Rosa was a lover of music with Luther being one of her favorites. She brought joy and fun to all those who came in contact with her. She had a very big heart and was giving and loved to cook. Rosa also volunteered in the community and helped at the elections polls for many years translating.

Rosa is preceded in death by her mother and father, Modesta and Tomas. She leaves to cherish her memories: her five children, Stephen, Irving, Marcello, Kisha and Tyeisha; grandchildren, Anthony, Shawn, Jasmia, Joshua, Shevionte, Shatorra, Victoria, Jasmin, Davonte and DeeVonte; one great grand, Jahir; brothers, Alcebiades and Mario; sister, Yolanda (TuTi); longtime companion, Eric Pamplin; and nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends who loved her.

She will be missed and never forgotten.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures He gives me repose: Before restful waters He leads me: He refreshes my soul. He guides me in right paths for His name's sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil: for you are at my side, with your rod and your staff that give me courage. You spread a table for me in the sight of my foes: you anoint my head with oil: my cup overflows. Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life: And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for years to come.

A Mother's Love

A mother's love is everlasting though the flesh is gone. The memories of joy and laughter will still live on. I will always miss your voice and your presence, I will remember all the times we shared. Don't worry I will move on as I remember one of your favorite songs. I know life still goes on as I start my days and end my nights my mother's love will embrace me tight. Feeling your presence and knowing you're there letting me know I have nothing to fear. I will then close my eyes and squeeze real tight then I will have a good sleep.

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
