Obituary

Dorcus Ethel Marsh was born March 21, 1926 in Panama to the proud parents of Millicent and George Lavern Wilson (deceased). To that union they produced four children: George, Jr., Ruby Anita, Berle, and Dorcus Ethel.

Dorcus was educated in Panama where she received her high school diploma. Upon graduation, she was gainfully employed at Fort Clayton Military Commissary in Panama as a cashier. She remained a loyal employee for eight years. She gave birth to Beverly Wilson (deceased) and Mario R. Marsh prior to her moving to the United States. Upon her arrival, she searched for opportunities for the betterment of life for herself and her children. She arrived in Buffalo, NY and worked various jobs for next three to four years. Dorcus being a driven individual and wanting the best for her children moved to Canada whereby she found a job as a nurse's aide. After living in Canada for two years, she moved back to the United States. She resided in Newark, NJ where she met and married the love of her life Lomax Marsh on January 1, 1963 at Phillips Metropolitan CME Church located at 51 Beacon Street, Newark, NJ. Thereafter she pursued a career in nursing. Dorcus attended Orange Memorial Hospital School of Nursing earning her nurses certification. After receiving her nurse's certification, she was employed for 14 years at the Orthopedic Center of Orange. Her enormous experience led her to apply for a position as a Neo natal Nurse with Mountainside Medical Center in Montclair, NJ. It was obvious that she loved children. Her caring spirit and nurturing soul compelled her to work for 30 plus years caring for hospitalized children. She retired and purchased her first home in Orange, NJ in order to enjoy the fruits of her tireless labor. She loved to travel and during her retirement, she visited many countries.

Dorcus leaves to mourn: a loving and devoted son, Mario R. Marsh; grandchildren, Charles Belgrave, Clive Wilson, Carle Wilson and Shevonne Wilson; nephews, Darryl Strange, Charles Henderson; nieces, Sally Brown, Venus Henderson, Francis Simmons, Patricia Ewell, and Lynette Marsh; god-daughters, Yakima Wallace, Sharone Sears and Darlene Price; seven great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by a daughter, Beverly Wilson and a grandson, Sylvan Wilson Dorcus lived a full and rich life. She will forever be in our hearts.

1 Corinthians 15:54-57 Then, when our dying bodies have been transformed into bodies that will never die, this Scripture will be fulfilled: "Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?" For sin is the sting that results in death, and the law gives sin its power. But thank God! He gives us victory over sin and death through our Lord Jesus Christ

I Am Resting

*I've parted this life my loved one,
But worry not for I am not gone,
I am merely resting.
Don't cry or mourn
For God is with you and in your hearts. Carry on.
We will miss each other,
But remember God is with us all.
Be strong my loved one,
For I am not gone,
but merely resting.*
