Obituary

Lettie Snead was born to Fred Mills and Valerie Weaver on July 28, 1931 in Durham, North Carolina. She was one of three siblings.

Her family moved to New York City, where she graduated from Boys and Girls High School. She then went on to complete four years of college. After completing college, she met and married Thurman L. Snead. Out of that union they had four children.

She retired from the U.S. Postal Service as a clerk.

She is preceded in death by one brother, one sister, her husband and one son.

She leaves to mourn: three children; six grandchildren; twelve great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
