Reflections of Life

Carrie Coleman, was born on April 16, 1929 to Harmon and Maggie Lue Spann in Bishopville, South Carolina. She attended school in Lee County, South Carolina. In 1948, she met David Coleman, Sr. and they got married in 1949. This union produced five children.

Carrie was a dry cleaner presser for Mr. Bob Cleaners for many years. She was a member of Star of Bethlehem, #22 of the Eastern Stars and a member of the Calvary Baptist Church which she enjoyed immensely. She loved fishing, playing bingo and pity pat cards but most of all she loved to cook and bake. She was a great cook!!

She is predeceased by her parents, Harmon and Maggie Lue Spann, her two sisters, Rose Lee Burris and Willa Mae Ratliff and her two sons, Roosevelt Coleman, Sr. and James Coleman.

She loved being with her children and grandchildren and took pleasure going to various amusement parks and places in and out the country.

Carrie Coleman is survived by: her three children, son, David Coleman, Jr. of Columbia, South Carolina; daughters, Ruby N. Cotton of Paterson, New Jersey and Barbara Ann Coleman of West Palm Beach, Florida. She loved her two daughters-in-law, Ruth-Ann Coleman-Stewart, Lillie M. Coleman and one son-in-law, Edward L. Cotton, Jr.; her eight grandchildren, Roosevelt Coleman, Jr. (Keisha) of Ewing, New Jersey, Taiteana Odella Patrice Coleman of Dallas, Texas, David Coleman III of Columbia, South Carolina, Candice C. Cotton and Edward L. Cotton III of Paterson, New Jersey, Carrie Ann Harris of West Palm Beach, Florida, Latoya T. Ward of Norfolk, Virginia and Kendrick C. Ward of Sumter, South Carolina; seven great grandchildren, Amier Mouzon, Gavin Christopher Coleman, Quinton Brown II, Kendrick Ward, Jr., Kenon Ward, Karter Ward and Konner Jordon Ward. Carrie also leaves behind a very special brother, Harmon Spann, Jr. and sister Ammie Lee Ledwell; as well as a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
