Obituary

Nadine C. Isaacs, 56, left and went home on December 7, 2016.

Nadine was born on March 18, 1960, the daughter of Celina Leibert and Charles Cornish. She grew up and graduated in Harlem, and lived in the Bronx. She continued her education in NYCHA. She loved life and also worked very hard until she retired two months ago.

She is survived by: her husband of 39 years, Albert Isaacs; four daughters, Tonisha Leibert, Harriet Isaacs, Shanzanae Isaacs and Celina Isaacs; her only son, Joshua Isaacs; her mother, Celina Leibert; her three siblings, sister, Nicole Finley and brothers, Lloyd Finley and Louis Bailey; two uncles; four aunts; nine nieces and nephews; fourteen grandchildren; two god-children; a host of cousins; and her NYCHA family.

Nadine was loved and held in high regards from all of her family and friends, including her NYCHA family. She was truly one of a kind, a true gem, and a force of nature. We will always love her and miss her dearly, but her soul and spirit remains forever with us in every breath and move we make.

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
