Obituary

Willis Moore, Jr. (Sammy) was born on May 3, 1961 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Mary Jeanette Stevens, and the late Willis Moore, Sr. He departed this life on Saturday, November 26, 2016 in San Diego, California. Sammy was the third oldest of seven children.

Sammy spent the majority of his adolescent years in the Brownsville section of Brooklyn, New York where he received his education through the New York City school system. He attended Thomas Jefferson High School and later received his GED. Sammy became acceptable to his surroundings and became accustomed to the fast lane at an early age which led him in and out of trouble. It wasn't until he was much older that he realized he could be much better and more enjoyable to have his own. He was raised to love family and care for others.

Sammy had a passion for driving that was noticed at an early age. He could practically drive anything on wheels. It wasn't until late in his life that he made the decision to move away from New York and start a fresh life in San Diego, California. Given a second chance Sammy experienced the joy of marriage, freedom, and living his dreams.

Sammy is leaving behind: his daughter, Tawana; four brothers, Anthony Stevens, Robert Stevens, Dwayne Stevens, and Manolito Lopez; one sister, Tentea Crite; one brother, Darren Stevens preceded him in death. Nieces and nephews: Shakima, Shawnta, Natalie, Melanie, Marie, Yusef, Karimah, Robert, Jr., Brian, Dwayne, Jr., Loanne, Curtis, Chalice, Darren, Samantha, Maleaja, Diovon, Christopher, and Taliyah, aunts, uncles, great-nephews, and nieces, cousins, and friends.

Sammy had a big heart. He was kind and always giving to others. Sammy will truly be missed.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.*

*A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
