Obituary

Jeanette Davis was born December 6, 1950 and closed her eyes to rest on December 11, 2016. Jeanette known as "Jenny", was born to parents, Robert and Irene Davis. Jeanette was the sixth and first daughter of nine children.

At a young age, Jenny was baptized at First New Zion Baptist Church. Jenny had a beautiful voice and she sang like an angel. She later joined the David Pharr Gospel Chorus, at Greater Hood Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church, which she attended with her family for many years. Jenny graduated from Julia Richmond High School and immediately afterwards she went to work at Citibank for eighteen long years as a Facilitator. She retired early due to complications of having twins. Jeanette had three beautiful children, Antoinette known as "Toni", Johnay known as "Kiki" and Quan known as "Mikey". She was devastated by the loss of two of her children, Toni and Mikey.

She leaves to mourn: a daughter, Kiki; five grandchildren, Daquan, Antwan, Antonia, Kahlil and Brad; one great grandson, Mason; a sister, Annette Davis from the Bronx, NY; a brother, Ledgure Davis from Harlem, NY; her children's father, John Utley; son-in-law, Brad Joseph; great friend, Edward Bryant; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends too many to name.

Jenny loved her Pepsi Cola, a two-liter bottle was always by her side. When she went on an outing, Jenny was sure to take her Pepsi with her. She did not go anywhere without it. She was an excellent cook. She was asked quite regularly to cook a dish for her family and friends around the neighborhood. She was a bubbly and loving woman that loved her family and friends. Jenny will be greatly missed. Jenny was funny and witty with a great sense of humor. The children in her neighborhood loved her dearly, "Hello, Ms. Jenny".

The family would like for everyone to know that Jeanette often stated that she was not afraid. As she begun to lose the battle, she remained strong and fought hard for her family.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
