Obituary

Darryl Richardson better known as "Big D" was born on November 30th, 1962 in Brooklyn, New York. He was the son of the late Mattie Barnes-Richardson and the late Charles Young.

Darryl was a loving, kind and devoted brother, husband, uncle, and father. He was educated by the New York City school system. Darryl worked for New York City Parks Department for many years.

He loved hip-hop and his favorite group was Run-DMC. He swore he could dance, and he would always try. He never knew the lyrics, but that didn't stop him from trying. Darryl loved all his siblings, nieces, nephews, and children. He had a heart of gold and was loved and respected by all. Anytime there was trouble or a problem everyone always called upon Darryl, he was always there. Darryl was a generous and charitable man who always gave.

Darryl was married to the late Veronica Roberts-Richardson. He was the ninth child out of ten. Six siblings preceded him in death, Russell Richardson, Donald Richardson, James Richardson, Michael Richardson, Sheila Richardson, and Sherry Richardson-Roberts.

Darryl leaves to honor his memory: five children, Auset Roberts, Tuesday Michelle, Trevor Roberts, Ebony Roberts, and Darryl Richardson; five grandchildren, Saniyah Roberts, Taliyah Starks, Talayah Williams, Husayn Starks, Jr., and Trevor Roberts, Jr.; his sister, Amy Richardson; his sister and her husband, Michele Wilson and Anthony Wilson; his brother and his wife, Johnny and Lynette Richardson; his sister-in-law, Velva Richardson; brothers-in-law, Michael Roberts and Donald Geddie; and a handful of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and friends who will miss Darryl more than words can express. Darryl is loved by many and will always be in our hearts, gone now, but never forgotten.

Forget-Me-Not

*I give you this one thought to keep
I am with you still - I don't sleep*

*I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain*

*When you awaken in the mornings hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight
I am the soft stars that shine at night*

*Do not think of me as gone
I am with you still in each new dawn*

With love, peace, understanding, and respect Your sister, Amy Richardson, cousins, Arthur R. Young and La'Tania N. Young- Strickland.
