Reflections of Life

Sharon Rose Underwood Jones, age 65, passed away on Sunday, December 18th 2016, at Hackensack Hospital in New Jersey. She was born September 7th 1951, in Passaic NJ, to John Underwood and Doris Harris Underwood.

She was a 1969 graduate of East Rutherford High School. She married Wayne Allen Jones on September 7, 1983, two wonderful children were born to this union Dorian and Dominique.

Sharon was also known as "Momma Sharon" to all the kids she took care of in her Home Day Care! She did that for 18 years. In 2002, Sharon began working for the Motor vehicle Agency in Wallington NJ.

She truly lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures; chatting with friends and family, and spending time with her Daughter and Son. Sharon had an uncanny ability to reach people in a deep and positive way.

Sharon's early church life began at Mount Olive Baptist Church in Hackensack, NJ. Then, Sharon became a member of John Wesley Methodist Church where she was an active member of the Vacation Bible School Dept. and President of the Usher Board until her health no longer permitted her to be an active member. She was a member of The Rutherford Student Aid Committee.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter and son Dorian and Dominique Jones, her cousins Karen Harris-Eason, Joe Anne Harris, Billy Harris, Roger Harris, Jonathan Harris, Greg Harris and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, church family and friends.

In Memory of Sharon

The struggle is over. The battle has ended.

Sharon fought a good fight and the victory is won.

Sharon, your burdens were many and the load was heavy.

You looked to the hills from where your promised help had come.

Oh how Sharon, encouraged us by faith that it would be done.

In the heat of the battle, the fight was intense.

But you never gave up.

You persevered by faith knowing His grace was sufficient.

The Lord was near and His Holy Spirit helped her move

Pass weakness and fears to a place of strength and grace.

Sharon, I noticed you never said,

“why me” whined or complained.

No one could have ever imaged

what you were enduring by your looks.

Lord, please help us follow the example of that mighty soft spoken, loving woman of God.

She confessed and walked faith by to the end,

which never wavered to the only begotten Son, Jesus Christ.

With much love, respect and appreciation for all you did for us, and others.
