Obituary

Today we come together to celebrate the life of Kenneth Alexander Elmore, Sr. Kenneth was called home on December 20, 2016. Kenneth was born to Bernice Elmore on March 12, 1970, in Harlem Hospital.

Kenneth attended P.S. 153, Stitt Junior High School and then progressed to Park West High School. Kenneth's hobbies included basketball, dominoes, and spending time with family. Kenneth worked as a house manager while also having skills in construction.

If you knew Boo....you loved Boo. He was a kind and sweet person. He would make you laugh when you weren't feeling so good, and talk to you to ease your troubles. He was a gentle soul. Kenneth's trademark was "woo-woo-woo-woo." If you heard this you knew the Great Boobleosoo was around.

Kenneth leaves behind: his mother, Bernice Elmore; son, Kenneth Alexander Elmore, Jr.; wife, Ruby Elmore; grandson, Christian Alexander Elmore; two brothers, Kevin and Keith Elmore; three aunts, Lucille Elmore, Louise Brown and Mary Frett; uncle, Benjamin Scott; best friend, Damon Rochester; Lucy, the mother of his child; and a host of cousins and very good friends.

Kenneth will be missed greatly, missed by all of us. Yes we love him, but God loves him best. All the way from heaven we can hear him say, "woo-woo-woo, the one and only Great Boobleosoo."

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
