Obituary

Armani D'Andre Mcphall was born on April 1, 1997 to Anthony Mcphall and Monique Jones in Newark, New Jersey. Our Champ Armani was then called home on December 22, 2016 in the same city which he was best known as a Hometown Hero and Champion.

Armani was also known as “Lil Pro” or “Champ”, which were two well suited nicknames his father gave him at a young age of 6 because he fought like a pro when he put on his first pair of boxing gloves. Armani's Father knew that Armani was destined for greatness since he was an infant, so he supported the many ventures that Armani chose to take on. Whether it was collecting crayons for kids in the hospital, to feeding the homeless and less fortunate at Penn Station you could see Armani doing that with pride and with a humbling smile that could light up a room. This was only the beginning, Armani went on to speak at the Business Hall of Fame in 2007 and to enter various boxing tours across the country. Armani also made his Uncle Vincent very proud in 2011 when he followed in his footsteps and placed 4th in the Teen Body Building Tournament. 2015, was a great year for Armani as he graduated High School from Vision Academy and went on to the Olympic Trials Quarter Final for boxing representing his Gym, Elite Heat Boxing.

Armani was a strong ambitious young man who loved family and friends, but that didn't mean he would spare you from being the center of his jokes or pranks that he loved to play- especially the ones that had you believing you won a 900 million dollar lottery. Armani loved music, dancing, good food, and a good laugh. Armani was hilarious and everyone knew it (especially his teachers) so he could always be counted on to cheer someone up young or old. Armani will truly be missed by those who loved him sincerely.

He leaves to mourn his parents, Anthony Mcphall and Monique Jones; two siblings, Nahjee Ward and Sasha Hall-Ingram; grandmother, Dianne Carlisle; great grandmother, Bernice Jones; great aunt and uncle, Gwen and Donald Jones; uncles, Vincent and Charles Carlisle, Anthony Townes; aunts, Yvette Carlisle, Elizabeth Townes, and Gina Carlisle; cousins, Shawn, Betty, Ashley, Jasmine, Corey, Janae', Denise, Shane, Tanajah, Kim, and Fuquan and a host of loving relatives and friends.

Lord make us an instrument of your Peace.
where there is hatred..let us sow Love.
where there is injury... Pardon.
where there doubt... Faith.
where there is despair... Hope.
where there is darkness... Light.
and where there is sadness, Joy!
O divine MASTER, grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,to be under stood

as to understand,to be loved as to love,for it is in pardoning that we are pardoned and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.

Pallbearers- Vince, Johnny, Corey, Shawn, Terrell, and Lawrence
