Life Reflections

Dorothy Mae Wooten was born on February 18, 1932 in Sumter, South Carolina, daughter of the late George and Blanche Baldwin. She was educated in the Linden Public School system and attended Linden High School. Dorothy was a long time resident of Elizabeth, New Jersey for 43 years before moving back to Linden two months ago.

Dorothy was employed as an Assembler at General Motors Corporation for 25 years. Previously, she worked at Elizabeth General Hospital, Merck and Company, Westinghouse, and the Linden Public School system to name a few.

Dorothy accepted the Lord as her personal savior. She was an active member of Emmanuel Tabernacle Assembly of God in Linden for many years. Previously, she was a faithful member of First Baptist Church in Linden, New Life Ministries in Kenilworth, Greater Promise Baptist Church in Linden, and Temple of Prayer for many years.

She liked to bowl, travel, gardening and crochet. Dorothy made blankets for just about everyone she knew had small children. One of her favorite places was Disney World and she would take her grandchildren and great-grandchildren there. Dorothy loved her grandchildren and great grandchildren and attended their school events. Dorothy's beloved cat Felix that she spoke highly of we cannot forget.

On Sunday, December 25, 2016, Dorothy Mae Wooten went home to be with Lord at St. Barnabas Hospital in Livingston, New Jersey.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, her daughter, Glenda Lee (Howard); 3 brothers: George Baldwin, Jr., Kevin Baker (Jorettha) and Leroy Baker (Sherry); 4 grandchildren: Melissa Bulle (Keith), Kimberly Lawson (James), Lisa Alexander (Donald Sr.), and Howard Lee III; 9 great grandchildren: Jasmine Alexander (Haki), Dezire Alexander, Dante Carter, Donald Alexander, Jr., Jereimah Lawson, Joel Deryce, Donye Alexander, Olivia Lawson and Damien Deryce; one great-great-grandson, Joshua Race, Jr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, dear relatives and friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

Family and Friends of Dorothy Mae Wooten

*When I am gone Release Me
let me go where I'll hurt no more.*

I'm at peace I have many things to see and do in my big mansion in the sky.

Do not tie yourself down to me with tears.

But be happy we shared so many years.

I gave love, & you can't imagine how much you gave me in happiness and love.

You would never know how much I admired appreciate, & love you for always being there for me.

So grieve for a while if you must.

But let your trust in the Lord give you comfort that we may be apart for now but the memories will live forever.

When it is your time to take this journey

I'll be waiting for you saying welcome home.
