Obituary

Jack Ellis was born on April 26, 1945 in Washington DC to the late Abraham Ellis and Bertha Ellis.

At an early age, the Ellis family migrated to New York City where Jack received his formal education. He graduated from Canarsie High School and worked as a laborer for over 30 years in the garment district of New York City. Jack was a sharp dresser and he loved life and lived it to the fullest. To know Jack was to love him.

Jack leaves to cherish fond memories: his mother, Bertha Ellis; son, Eric Ellis; sister, Stella Dixon all of Brooklyn, New York. He also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Jack will truly be missed.

Lovingly submitted,

The family

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
