Obituary

Rae Lloyd Walton was born on July 25th, 1943 in Binghamton, New York to the late Mary Jane Parker and Raymond Nelson. On December 28th, 2016 the Lord called her home.

Rae attended and graduated from Hauppauge High School. After High School she began working at South Side Hospital in Bay Shore, NY for three years. Rae then worked at Pilgrim Psychiatric Center. There she attended the first Nursing Program ever given in that institution and became one of the first African American Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN).

So many people knew Rae as a lady who was always willing to help. She was involved in the Prison Family Anonymous Program where she made sure that the children of inmates had toys, food and clothes. She loved this program, Rae had a special knack for understanding others, and facilitated others to understand themselves. She will be sorely missed.

Rae L. Walton leaves to mourn her passing: her two daughters, Mary Alice Nelson and Jane M. Walton; son, Gene R. Walton; grandsons, Sylvester Rubin Hill, Lyodd Reed Watkins, and Gene R. Walton, Jr.; two granddaughters, Katrina Rae Gayle and Jasmine S. Walton and a host of nieces, nephews, great-grand's, family and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Acknowledgement
