Obituary

Maxciel Jackson was born on February 6, 1924 to the late Thomas and Flossie Jackson in Harlem, New York. After completing her high school education, she attended Harlem Hospital Nursing School and became a Nurse's Aid. Maxciel always showed compassion and love for the work which brought forth numerous awards for her dedication and services.

Maxciel was a member of Salem AME Church in New York and sung in the choir for many years. In the 1960's she then became a Jehovah's Witness where she was also dedicated in the service of witnessing to God's people. He Will Call

Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:
He will call; The dead will answer.
They shall live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever,
As the work of his own hand.
Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.
He will call; The dead will answer.
They shall live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever,
As the work of his own hand.
