Obituary

Bilal Kelso Cochrane was born on October 28, 1989 in Brooklyn, New York. He was always a happy boy and he woke up smiling every morning.

As soon as he went to elementary school, he was put into a gifted class because he was very bright. He went to YMCA when he was about 6 years old, there he took up karate, tap dance, and drum lessons. He later took piano lessons and went to art school, where he made many beautiful pieces of art. As he grew older, he became interested in rapping and a lot of people like listening to his raps. Later on as a teenager he was interested in audio technology and went to a trade school. This led to him deciding to move to Arizona for a job at a radio station.

He is survived by: his mother, Karen; his father, Lamar; his grandmother, Kansas; sister, Desiree; aunts, Josephine, Eleanor and Robin; uncle, Todd; nephew, Devon; cousins, Walika, Jamillah, Sahaladeen, Sahaladeen, Jr., Sareem, Jibril, Samiyah, Ebonee, Cianni, Khalil and Nadeerah, Todd, Jr. and Tyler; and many other family and friends.
