Obituary

Eugene Mansell, Jr. was born January 1, 1961 in the Bronx, New York to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mansell. Eugene was the youngest of four children, Barbara, Carol and Catherine.

During Eugene's formative years he attended the Young Adult Institute (YAI) in Manhattan. Eugene enjoyed attending YAI where he would bake cookies for senior citizens and make doggie biscuits which they would donate in the community. Eugene loved listening to music and clapping with the songs. Keeping with the Mansell tradition, Eugene enjoyed eating. His favorites were fish, rice, and apple pie.

Eugene departed this life on January 5, 2017 at Concourse Rehabilitation Nursing Center. He leaves to cherish his memory: a loving sister, Catherine Battle; nieces, Veronica Mansell, Cynthia Davis and Zakiya Battle; nephews, Chester Davis, Jr., John A. Battle and Michael R. Battle; and a host of great nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
