To know a loving sweet person is to know Pamela. Pam was kind, smart, sweet and very loving. She would give you her all and her last and would not think twice. Pamela would be a listening ear and would open her door to anyone who was in need. She was very social and loved being around her family and friends. Pamela only wanted the best for her three children, Casmiere, Champale and Malaki Watts who was her world.

A Poem to Mom

Dear Mom,

Some people knew you as a neighbor, while others knew you as a friend, but to our family you were our world, our beginning through the end. You always taught us by example you were strong with a golden heart. We know now we'll never be apart you're still the rock on which we stand. You are the bright star in the dark night. You are my laughter though any headache. You're still our mom when things aren't right. We thank God you were our mother and though it hurts to say good-bye, we will treasure the many memories and knowing one day our tears will dry. Good bye now we'll see you in heaven. You were the best parent a child could ever ask for from now on we will live for you. ♥

Love Casmiere "Cash"

To Our Heart,

For all you do, you do with love. You are so special. A gift from above and with all my heart I want to say I love you mommy in my heart you will always stay. ♥

Love Champale "Champ"

Acknowledgement

The Watts family acknowledges with deep appreciation every prayer, thought and act of kindness extended to us during our time of bereavement. The cards, tributes and words of love have been a great source of strength and comfort In Loving Memory.
