Obituary

Ms. Lucille Young Stanley, known to those who loved her as "Chill" was born on April 20, 1935 to the late Ms. Sarah Young of Danville, Virginia. Lucille was educated in the Pittsylvania County Public School System. At the young age of seventeen, Lucille left Danville, Virginia and moved to New York City.

Lucille found the passion and love to nurture, mold and teach young minds. That's what inspired her to continue her education at The Prestige all girl school and College of New Rochelle, where she received her Bachelors of Science in Social Work. She landed a great job as a Social Worker in a group home for girls 12-21 years old. Lucille later became the supervisor of the group home and worked up until she retired.

Lucille had a great love for cooking, shopping as well as traveling. She was a blessing to those who knew her. If you crossed Lucille's path in your lifetime you had a true friend. She would help you with any situation whether it was food, shelter, clothing or just to listen to what you might have to say. She loved spending time with her family and friends. She was a very proud woman and a very proud mother of five girls who she thought the world of. Her firstborn, Barbara who she knew shined bright like the diamond she is. The second, Yolanda, her rock and her twin. The third, Sharon, beautiful as ever. Life couldn't get any better, but yet it did the fourth girl, Karen. Yet last but not least her baby girl, Genevieve, and which made her family whole.

Lucille was preceded in death by: her three brothers, Edward Logan, Jack Lee White and Willie James Logan; two sisters, Lamar Lewis and Dr. Barbara Slater; two daughters, Yolanda Young Onanuga and Sharon Young Eubanks; and stepson, Willie Pete Rome.

Lucille leaves to cherish her memory and carry on her legacy: her three daughters, Barbara Womack and son-in-law, Sterlin Womack of Danville, VA, Karen Young of NY and Genevieve Young Jordan and son-in-law, Samuel Jordan, Sr. of Bridgeport, CT; two sisters-in-law, Jackie Logan of Danville, VA and Nattie White of Santa Ana, CA; a host of grandchildren, Catina, Hakem, Patrice, Shekema, Nicky, Samuel, David, Jerrica, Zikiyyah, Love, Infinite, Mykalah, Yolanda, Maia, Teliki, Miss Aprie, Kevin and Miss Giovanni, nephews, Gene and Mitchell; her favorite niece, Michell; goddaughters, Terry Jackson, Delores Andrews; godson, Gregory Jackson; step children, Larry Peridton, Lin Peridton, Tracey Peridton, Wanda Crowder, Stephanie Crowder, Marla Scurry, John Allen Crowder II; sons-in-law, Yammy Onanuga and Trevor Eubanks; and a host of great grands, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Lucille had a giving heart and a strong personality. It's difficult for us to see her succumb to any force whether it be illness or difficult life situations. She was the embodiment of a fighter, and will be deeply missed, but not forgotten. Barbara's life and words of encouragement, as well as her helping hands, will be a continued inspiration to her family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
 I'm following the path God laid for me
 I took his hand when I heard Him call
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day.
 To laugh, to love, to work or play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I found that peace at the close of day.
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it up with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savored much.
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free!*
