Obituary

William Morrison was born in the Bronx New York, on September 26th 1967 to William Foster Temple and Doris Morrison-Major. William, affectionately known as “Will” or “Tinker” attended The Printing High School of Graphic Arts. In an effort to further his education he enrolled in Mercy College where he completed his Bachelor degree. Pursuing his passion for psychology, Will continued his studies and successfully obtained his Master’s degree in 2008.

Will was a loving, fun individual and was always the life of the party and was loved by all who interacted with him. While he was small in stature his presence filled a room. He had a chameleon like personality and at the drop of a hat could switch from a comedian to an intellectual debater and would debate anything.

William is pre-deceased by his father, William Foster Temple, two siblings, Kenneth Morrison and Charlene Morrison. He leaves behind his mother, Doris Morrison Major who loved him dearly, a loving fiancé and long term partner, Vernice (Angie) Dukes, two children, Alexis and Taiquan, five siblings, Cheryl, George, Joanne, Loralyn and William Roy, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and friends.

His family and friends will truly miss him, however we have long lasting memories to cherish. For we know that goodbyes are not forever and death is not the final chapter.

He Is Gone

*You can shed tears that he is gone
Or you can smile because he has lived
You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left
Your heart can be empty because you can't see him
Or you can be full of the love that you shared
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday
You can remember him and only that he is gone
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what he would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*
