Obituary

Lazar Moore was born on July 10, 1947 in Harlem, New York to the late RC “Shug” Moore and Callie Moore. He was the youngest of five children including Gilbert, Gary, Mary and Douglas. As a child, Lazar was very outgoing, happy and energetic. He was always very studious and such a people person that he could associate with anyone.

He attended Benjamin Franklin High School in Manhattan and then went on to Columbia University for a few years until he enlisted in the United States Army in 1968. He honorably served his country until 1971 as a Vietnam War veteran. He later continued his education at Columbia University and then went on to work in real estate and building management.

Lazar was an avid sports fan and kept track of players statistics. He loved talking about sports, politics, world and current events. He watched the news and read three newspapers daily when possible. He spent many hours and days debating and talking about these issues with his older brother, Gilbert, often in front of their mother who was amused by this. As an avid reader, he owned lots of books. He was the kind of person that enjoyed thought provoking conversations and would always be ready to debate any topic. Lazar loved to write and had beautiful penmanship, even for someone who was left handed. He also loved to walk and would visit many city landmarks.

He is described by his family as being a wonderful uncle who cherished the many accomplishments of all his nieces. Most of all, he lovingly assisted his mother Callie with her daily needs, as she became older and needed more help and in home care.

Lazar departed this life on December 28, 2016 in his home in Harlem, New York. He was preceded in death by his brother, Gary Moore. He leaves to mourn three siblings, Gilbert, Mary, and Douglas Moore; sisters-in-law, Elaine Moore and Wanda Moore; extended family member, Kathy Stephens; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
