Obsequies

Jerry Lee Chiselle was born in Henderson, North Carolina on October 22, 1946. He was the son of the late Garner A. and Katie B. Hinnant. He departed this life on January 17, 2017 at his home on 654 Bergen Avenue, Jersey City, NJ.

Jerry worked for the incinerator Anthony Will and for years of his life also their worked other small jobs such as Bread and Butter Store in Jersey City and Truckan Bros. Towing Co. of Jersey City.

Jerry loved to read, one of his favorite spots was Miller Branch Library. If you ever wanted to contact and find Jerry the library would be the place to look and there he would be sitting in his very own corner of the library. Jerry's idle was Marvin Gaye. Jerry would dress like Marvin, walk like Marvin, talk like Marvin and even acted like Marvin in his younger days. You could not tell Jerry he was not Marvin. Jerry loved his motor cycle just as well as his brother David. They both took a loving to past riding vehicles.

He was preceded in death by his father, Garener A. Hinnant, mother, Katie B. Manson, brother, David Hinnant, sister, Shirley S. Steed and Susan Manson, three nephews, Samuel Steed, Charles Steed and Jerome Steed and two cousins.

Jerry is survived by his brother, James L. Hinnant of Jersey City; two sisters-in-law, Wanda Hinnant and Mary H. Hinnant of Jersey City; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives.

I would like to give a special thanks to Truckan Bros. Towing Co. And a special thanks to Bread and Butter Convenience Store.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
