Obituary

On Monday, January 23, 2017, Morris Charlton was given his wings by God. His home going leaves a heartache no one can heal. But his love leaves a memory no one can steal.

Morris Charlton was born on May 16, 1951 in New York City to Dorothy Mae Charlton and Hozia Sinkler. He attended Cooper Junior High School and went on to complete his education at Benjamin Franklin High School.

Morris was known to friends and family as "Poppa Stoppa". He was a strong and caring man who touched the lives of others in so many aspects of life. If you had the pleasure of meeting him you were immediately drawn to his warm personality and style. Stopper was a baseball and basketball fan. He was a jazz lover and during the summer months you could find him and the fellas following the jazz mobile throughout the five boroughs. He will definitely be missed by all.

Morris leaves to cherish his memories: his loving partner, Joanna (Cookie) Price; his children, Quawana Charlton, Damany Charlton and Morris Charlton; two grandchildren, Talia Charlton and Julian Charlton; sisters, Joyce, Iona and Myra; brother, Charles; nieces, Dorothy Yvonne, Lisa, Cathy, Makeda and Tionica; nephews, William, and Theodore III; cousins, Ronald, Travis, Al, Rob, Evelyn and Lynellen; aunt, Marylyn; uncle, Sony; best friends, Junior, Bernard Leon, Kareem; and a host of devoted friends and his adopted family, the Davis', Lovell's, Cowan's, Best, Price, McBride's and Wilcock.

Dear Uncle and friend, today I find myself lost for words as I try to understand your sudden departure. However, the love and bond we share will never be lost nor forgotten. "I WILL MISS YOU UNCONDITIONALLY!! Rest in peace your loving niece, Dorothy.

Broken Chain

We knew little that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide: and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Acknowledgement

The family of Morris Charlton acknowledges with deep appreciation all act of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
