Obituary

Mr. Christopher Robin Bent was born on June 8, 1963 to the late Anita Mahfood and Rudolph Bent. He attended and graduated from Dewitt Clinton High School in the Bronx, New York.

Christopher Bent was known as "A Jack of All Trades" who excelled in many different trades. He was also known as the apple of his grandmother's eyes. While growing up, Christopher had a love for Michael Jackson. He was often told that he resembled him in his earlier years.

Christopher was very kind and made everyone who came in contact with him laugh. He was very loving and was known as a peacemaker.

Christopher had a genuine love for children, thus he played with them, taught them, cared for them, and was very nurturing towards them.

Preceding Christopher in death were his parents, Rudolph Bent and Anita Mahfood, grandmother, Rhoda Mejia, Dean and Sherman Bent, also, his uncles, Anthony and Ray.

Mr. Christopher Bent leaves behind to cherish his memories: his sister, Suzanne Bent (Nathan), Emory, Eugene, Gregory (Channie), Rudolph, Jr. (Elida), Frankie, Rohan (Maria), Anthony, and a host of great nieces and nephews, cousins, extended family and friends.

Tribute to Uncle Chris Because He Needed Me

*God saw I fought a good fight.
He saw I was getting tired and a cure was not to be.*

*He wrapped me in His loving arms and whispered
"Chris come with me."*

Don't worry about Suz and your nieces, nephews, and kids. I will keep them safe and provide. But, Christopher I am in need of thee tonight.

He said I have something that needs to be fixed like only you can. In other words, Chris, Heaven is need of a handyman. So at that time I realized I could not stay another day. To love, to laugh, to work, or to play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way. And if my parting has left you sad remember the joy we shared as I was your brother, uncle, and friend. My love for you will continue to be. Smile cause now I'm free. Oh! And to all those who loved me. I'll miss you all. All of you meant so much to me.
And I'll be your brother, uncle, nephew, cousin, and friend.*
