Reflections of Life

Tyrone Balmer was born September 5th, 1967 in Paterson, N.J.

Tyrone graduated from Eastside High School. Tyrone started his own bus company called Balmer Transportation. Prior to that he was employed by Imperial Plating in Carlstadt, N.J. as well as Pine Brook Tire in Pine Brook, N.J.

Tyrone was a member of Grace Chapel Church at an early age where he was baptized.

Tyrone loved to spoil his grandchildren. He loved imparting his wisdom to friends and family and telling a good joke to make you laugh. He enjoyed videotaping his family members on holidays capturing loving and fun moments. His true love was his Ford Mustang that he would race at a drop of a dime. Tyrone was a great man who left his mark on everyone he came in contact with and he will be missed dearly.

Tyrone is predeceased by his mother, Ethelene Smallwood.

Tyrone is survived by his children, Shania, Nikeema, Tykeel, and Zimere; grandchildren Kazier, Elijah, and Emiyah; parent, Joe Lee and Beatrice; sister, Toya, brothers, Jeff, William, and Jason; fiance, Stacey; He also leaves behind a host of Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, Nieces, Nephews, Friends, and Neighbors.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
