Obituary

Dolores Cook Wooten was born in Newark, New Jersey to the late James and Lila Cook on September 21, 1932. Delores was one of six siblings all preceded her in death, Nettie Caldwell, Alfonso Cook, Alma Cook Middleton, Mildred Brown, Gloria Cook. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Howard Wooten and son Michael Cook Townes.

Dolores first employment was in the toy industry as a billing clerk for Ideal Toys and Remco, afterwards, she went into real estate as a property manager. Later Dolores went to work at CBS Network in their accounting department. After working for many years Dolores retired in 1992.

She was a devoted mother, grandmother, aunt, cousin and friend. She believed in good, better, best never let it rest until your good is better and your better is best.

She leaves to mourn her daughter: Cheryll Williams Watts, living in Newark, N.J. A grandson Dwayne Williams (Michelle), one great grandson Justice Williams residing in Newark New Jersey and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Delores we will all miss your laughter, jokes, smile and your loving way of support in times of trouble. You always provided a meaning for life that would bring comfort to our hearts.

A Moment of Reflection

The moment that you died my heart was torn into.
One side filled with heartache, the other died with you.
I often lay awake at night when the world is fast asleep.
I take a walk down memory lane, with tears upon my cheeks.

Remembering you is easy, I do it every day,
but missing you is heartache that never goes away.

I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain, until the joyous day arrives that we will meet again.

Your beloved Daughter
