On November 18, 1946, Doris and Raymond Williams received the greatest gift, Brenda Delores Williams. Brenda was born and raised in Newark, N.J.

Her elementary schooling began at Newton Elementary Street School and later she graduated from West Side High School in 1964.

Upon graduating high school, she married the love of her life, Orlando Williams. And from that union, a bundle of joy, Khary K. Williams greeted them. After two years of being an at-home mom, Brenda landed her first job at New Jersey Bell now known to many today as Verizon. For many years on the job, her work ethic proved that she could assume the role as Supervisor for the Yellow Pages. Commitment and dedication earned her several monthly and yearly incentives offered by the company to their valued employees.

After 40 plus years, Brenda decided to retire her stripes and left a legacy behind for others to follow. During her retirement years, she executed her love of sewing and interior decorating through creating decorative curtains as well as having the eye to redecorate her home. She also pride herself in volunteering at her loving mother's nursing facility, The Daughters of Israel.

Brenda doted over the Lord and as a child she was baptized as a Baptist and later converted as a Catholic. Just as she loved the Lord, many loved Brenda.

Her contagious smile would brighten up any room and her inviting and welcoming spirit would leave many to talk to her for endless hours. This is why she will never be forgotten.

On February 6, 2017, Brenda left her earthly home and entered her heavenly home joining her father, Raymond Williams and her adored brother, Wallace Patterson. Brenda leaves to cherish her memory: her loving husband, Orlando Williams and her beloved son, Khary K. Williams, mother Doris Williams, two sisters, Deborah Williams and Nina Williams-Palmer, two brothers-in-law, Steven Williams and Nathaniel Palmer, aunts, Mary P. Murray, Vestella Anderson and Vivian Glover, uncles, Dr. Osiefield Anderson, George Glover, four nieces, Kim Williams, Ashley Patterson, Amber Palmer and Kristen Temple Patterson, great-niece Angelica Patterson, nephews Lonnie Williams, Eric Patterson and a host of cousins and friends.

Obituary

A Tribute To Mother

There were times when only
Our Mother's love
Could understand our tears,
Our bitter disappointments
And all our childish fears.
There were times when only
Our Mother's heart
Could share the joy we felt
When something that joy we felt
When something that we dreamed about
Quite suddenly wasn't real.
There were times when only
Our Mother's faith
Could help us on life's way
And inspire in us the confidence
We needed from day to day.
For our Mother's heart
And our Mother's faith
And our Mother's steadfast love
Were fashioned by the angels
And sent from God above.

Brenda Wants You To Know
I Am Happy Here

Many people may ask but where? But the ones of you who knew me well will not have ask or even tell. Those who are inquisitive of my new found happiness... I will help you out so you will not have to guess. It is a place where the sky is always blue, and the grass is always a bright green hue. There are no cloudy days with no over cast showing. The sun is just the right temperature and perfectly glowing. I am going to tell you of this celestial place one and all but first, I must let you know I heard the call early Monday morning.

As I lay, a far off cry of peace, joy and serenity is what I felt and heard, whispering saying, close your eyes and listen to my every word. For tomorrow you will wake and share just what you remember that tomorrow never came and I came and I never got to tell of my February to December. I never got to express to you what was said to me was, "don't worry, fret or shed a tear", because I am taking you to a place that is bright-never drear. Here you will meet your friends and loved ones that are gone on before, you will meet uncles and aunts and those grandparents you adore!

And just think you are free from work never another chore. No more days of sickness and pain...of course hardly ever did you complain! Friends and family, go on grieve, and rightly so, that is just fine. Just know the wonderful subliminal place her new residence, is through the pearly gates, on streets of gold and eternally in the Savior's presence.

Brenda says, I want everyone to know I am happy here,
Heaven is where
But surely you all must have known, you had to have figured it out! Brenda will be waiting for each of you- she wants to show you all about.
