Obituary

Rosa White was born July 1, 1916 to Selena Scott and Luther Dowdell in Americus, GA. She met Roland White in school at age 6, they instantly became friends and later married at age 16 in 1932. To the their union daughter Va'lois was added.

Her family later migrated to Newark, NJ and that is where Rosa was introduced to Jehovah's Witnesses through Bro. Frazier. She was baptized August 8, 1950 along with her husband Roland White, her mother Selena Franklin and her grandmother at The International Convention at Yankee Stadium in Bronx, NY. She raised her daughter Va'Lois to know Jehovah and also introduced her grandchildren to Jehovah. She was a Beautician by trade and after she retired she served as a pioneer until she was no longer able. She enjoyed her time in service to Jehovah and made many lifelong friends. She loved to visit her Great Grandchildren on Sunday after meetings to talk to them about Jehovah until she was no longer able to drive and her grandchildren took her keys at age 91.

She is preceded in death by her husband Roland White. She never remarried because she always said she wanted to be with her husband in paradise. She leaves behind to mourn her daughter Va'Lois Frazier. Four grandchildren Annissa Thatch, Shonda Walker, Stacy Walker, and Niesha Walker. Along with twelve great grandchildren and five great great grandchildren. She also leaves behind special friends James and Marie Alton, Judy Martin and a host of other family and friends.

2 Corinthians 1:3-7
(New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures)

3 Praised be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, 4 who comforts us in all our trials* so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial* with the comfort that we receive from God. 5 For just as the sufferings for the Christ abound in us, so the comfort we receive through the Christ also abounds. 6 Now if we face trials,* it is for your comfort and salvation; and if we are being comforted, it is for your comfort, which acts to help you to endure the same sufferings that we also suffer. 7 And our hope for you is unwavering, knowing as we do that just as you share in the sufferings, so you will also share in the comfort.*
