Obituary

Yvonne "Bon Bon" Davis was born on July 18, 1950 in Clarksville, Virginia to the late William H. Boswell and Hazel Johnson. She gained her angel wings on February 3, 2017 at Newark Beth Israel Hospital in Newark, NJ.

In 1968, Yvonne moved to Orange, NJ where she graduated from East Orange High School while residing at 108 Parrow Street. In 1972, she moved to Paterson, NJ where she met and formed a loving relationship with Earnest Richardson. She went on to have several occupations. She worked for the East Orange Police Department as a crossing guard as well as Planned Security Company in Clifton, NJ as a concierge for several years.

Her real passion, however, was cooking. She cooked for Ms. Gee of East Orange, NJ, The Pit in Orange, NJ, Crockets in Montclair, NJ as well as numerous other restaurants. Yvonne also had a number of hobbies including fishing, planting and repairing things around the home.

Yvonne was preceded in death by two sisters, Deloris Crutchfield and Lorraine Edmonds as well as one brother, Harry Coles Sr.

She is survived by two sisters, Ann Addison Aflango and Linda Boswell and one brother, William H. Boswell. She leaves behind five children, Cassandra Boswell, Candie Davis, and Charles Davis (born to her late husband, Charles Davis) as well as twin daughters, Lawanda and Roshonda Davis (born to Earnest Richardson), one brother-in-law, Kufi, one sister-in-law, Barbara, two son-in-laws, Paul and Gerard, one daughter-in law, Tiko, 24 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Broken Chain

We knew little that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide: and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Acknowledgement

We deeply appreciate your kind expression of sympathy in our time of great sorrow. We know our pain will decrease and what will remain will always be

Love all whom you hold dear

Precious is the time you share

Do not wait for tomorrow

For tomorrow may not be...

Thank you for keeping us in your thoughts and prayers
