Obituary

Raciler Wright-Garretson (known as Chrissy) was born on September 4, 1951 to the late Edward and Lois Wright in Dillon, South Carolina. She was the oldest of three children.

Chrissy was a graduate of West Side High School in Newark, New Jersey. She received an Associate Degree in Business from Essex County College. She worked as a Claims Representative for Prudential Insurance Company for many years until she retired.

Chrissy met Barnes P. Reid Jr. at Essex County College in 1970. This relationship would later bless them with a son, which bonded their friendship and united their families forever.

Chrissy met the late Patrick Garretson, Sr. in 1990 and fell in love. They were married in 1994 and had a loving and loyal marriage until his departure on January 18, 2006.

Chrissy enjoyed spending time with close family and friends. She was a sophisticated and elegant lady just like her younger sister, the late Lois Jean Tuck. They were the best of friends. Chrissy was very easy to talk to and was always kind to others. Chrissy could also be recognized by her beautiful and warm smile.

Chrissy leaves to cherish her memory: son, Barnes P. Reid III; daughter-in-law, Patricia Reid; three grandsons, Rashaad, Eesaa, and Ali; two grand-daughters, Christina and Nefertiti, two great grandchildren; Brother, Edward Wright Jr.; brother-in-law, Fred Tuck Sr. and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends who loved her dearly.

Chrissy will forever live in our hearts.

In Heaven's Arms

By Latifah Broadnax-Parker

In Heaven's Arms, there is a place,
Filled with the love of a Father's Embrace.

We never wanted to let her go,
So strong, so beautiful, so full of hope,
We pleaded; we prayed,
We had great faith.

You were a loving mother, sister
Auntie, friend, grandmother
And as much as we wanted to hold on
For so much longer,
God reminded us, you were still his Daughter.

We never wanted to see her leave.

All the good times, the laughs,
The sweet memories,
In our heart and thoughts,
We carried you so close.

Mother, auntie, sister
Friend and grandmother,
A special gift we all were blessed to know.

But God held onto his Daughter
And wouldn't let her go.

In Heaven's Arms is where we can find
The love, joy, healing and peace,
And his Daughter Raciler whom gently touched our lives.

We love you, may you rest in his wings.

Acknowledgement

The family would like to thank you for your heart-felt sympathy in our time of bereavement. Thank you for the many prayers, loving thoughts, support and kind words. May God bless and keep each and every one of you.
