Obituary

Kirshem Damonne Sanders was born to Vera Sanders and Jeffrey “Kirk” Cason on June 15, 1986 in The Bronx, New York. He died on January 17, 2017 in Portsmouth, Virginia, where he lived up until his death at the age of 30.

Close friends and extended family knew him as “Kirsh”, but he became known simply as “Kay” by the broad and dedicated friends he’d make over years. His many nicknames and monikers reflect the tough, playful and spunky kid who grew into the caring, laid-back, and loyal man. They reflect someone deeply valued by family, friends, former classmates and neighbors no matter where life took him.

Kirshem joins his father, Jeffrey, and both maternal and paternal grandparents, who have long since transitioned. He is survived by: his mother, Vera; brothers, Nigel and Jeffrey; as well as his father’s children, Kirk, Charisma, and Jeffrey, Jr.; Kirshem’s uncle, Mark; along with aunts, Carolyn, Dorothea, Doreen, and Valorie; and cousins, Marlene, Ronald, Bruce, Bernard, Sharese, Shariff, Nikki, Camille, and AJ all live to treasure and celebrate his life. Kirshem is also an uncle to nephew, Gregory.
