Obituary

John Davis Montgomery was born on November 9, 1962 in the Bronx, New York to Willie Bell and J.D. Montgomery. He attended P.S 23, I.S. 158 and High School of Printing where he graduated with a High School Regency Diploma.

From the start, John has always had a passion for cars. Not ordinary cars, but Fast cars. I guess you can say, "He had a need for speed." Factory built cars were not sufficient. He would purchase cars and customize them to his liking. He once customized a Mitsubishi Eclipse to the tune of 700 hp.

John was self-employed as a Truck Driver and a proud Teamsters member. He drove Tractor Trailers Cross Country for well over thirty years, well beyond great distances. If it had wheels, John could drive it. John was a unique, unselfish individual, always ready to help others. If you were stuck on the road and needed assistance, John would get out of his bed and rush to your aid. No matter what the hour or distance!

On July 17, 2013, John married Alvis Maureen Russell. Although there were no children born of this union, John was extremely happy with his new found love.

Unfortunately, John's health started to deteriorate in 2013. While driving his truck, in route to the race track to test drive one of his customized vehicles, he suffered his first heart attack. This brought about other health complications which contributed to his passing. On February 15, 2017, John was called home.

John is survived by his wife: Alvis Maureen Russell-Montgomery, mother: Willie Bell, son: Justice Montgomery, brothers: Dwayne Montgomery, Barry Montgomery and Shaun Dixon, and sister: Charisse Dixon. He also leaves to mourn a host of aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews and in-laws.

Final Disposition

Oxford Hills Crematory Chester, New York

True Friendship and time are two priceless gifts that cannot be brought or sold. One allows you to develop and nurture the other.

So we urge each and every person here today to heed these words and use a portion of your priceless time to:

*Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.
New-made friendships, like new wine,
Age will mellow and refine.*

*Friendships that have stood the test -
Time and change - are surely best;
Brow may wrinkle, hair grow gray,
Friendship never knows decay.*

*For 'mid old friends, tried and true,
Once more we our youth renew.
But old friends, alas! may die,
New friends must their place supply.*

*Cherish friendship in your breast -
New is good, but old is best;
Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.*
