Obituary

Ms. Ruby Delagarde was born on February 24, 1943 to Fletcher and Roxie Baker in Brooklyn, New York. Ruby received her formal education through Washington Irving, where she excelled in her studies. She continued her education and received her associates degree in Nursing.

Ruby was employed at Kingsboro Psychiatric Center where she served dutifully for thirty-two years before retiring in 2005. In her leisure she enjoyed listening to gospel music, her O'Jays and Spinners, and shopping. Ms. Ruby enjoyed helping others and spending time with her children, grandchildren, and great grands.

Ruby Delagarde was truly blessed. She departed this life on February, 14, 2017. She is preceded in death by her loving father, Fletcher Baker; mother, Roxie Baker; beloved sister, Doris; brothers, Billy and Reginald.

She leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Roxanne Baker; four sons, Aaron Baker, Isaac Baker, Lionel Delagarde and Diamond Darryl Delagarde; two sisters, Estella Estenson and Virginia Ann Mosley; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, other loving relatives and friends. All she wanted was to live surrounded by her life.

*God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be,
So He closed His arms around you,
And He whispered, "Come to Me".
You do not deserve what you went through,
And so He gave you rest,
God's garden must be beautiful,
For He only takes from the best
In time we saw you sinking,
We watched you fade away,
Our hearts were almost broken,
You fought so hard to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping,
So peacefully from pain,
We could not wish you back.
To suffer that again.
If you had spoken before you died,
These are the words you would have replied,
"Weep not for me, but courage take,
And love one another for my sake."*
