My Lost Love

I have only just lost you the pain is hard to bear
Do I have to go through life knowing you're not there
Please someone explain to me why he had to go
Are there any reasons I really need to know
I sit here and remember all the lovely times we share
The talks the laughter of everyone you cared
I am told the pain will ease in time and I think of him without a tear but that will be impossible as I need to have him here he was my very world to me my ever guiding star just kiss me softly on the cheek and tell me where you are

Until we meet again love your wife Janie Hoskins

Dear grandpa to someone old yet so young. Although we are apart our memories live in my heart. Before we knew it you was gone watching you lay there in pain killed me to say goodbye. My heart was broken I knew you had to go I wish you could stay another day to laugh, to love, to work and play the things you did will be missed day by day.

I love you papa from your granddaughter Keymani

Dear Papa,

It was so hard to see you go but you're in a better place now this I know, you were so sweet and kind and now that you've passed it stays on my mind. You would give me a band-aid if I was ever hurt and you had no problem asking if I needed help with homework anything I asked you would try to complete at your best and if I got an 80 you would say why not a 90 on that test I'll try to not cry and be strong but I don't know if I can do that for so long. Now that you've passed on above I want you to know in my heart you wont be forgotten and will always be loved.

Love always your grandson Roc-Quan

Reflections of Life

On February 16, 2017 the Lord called Louis Hoskins home. On February 22, 1945 Louis was born in Greenville, Mississippi to the late Willie B and Mary Hoskins. He graduated from O' Banna High School in 1965. At a young age he served the US Army and was released with an Honorable Discharge.

He then relocated to New York where he worked with Con Edison until his retirement. He met and married Janie Hoskins of North Carolina and leaves behind to mourn three sons Vernon Henderson (Annie) Memphis, TN, Venanda Johnson (Bonita) New York and Torrance Hoskins of Greenville, SC; one baby girl Veronica Washington (Heath) of Long Island, NY.

He leaves behind his grandchildren Tyrell, Shequila, Danashi, Venanda Jr., Trelis, Keymani and Rocquan all who loved him and will miss him dearly. His great grandchildren Nasir and Maison. He leaves his brother Charlie Hoskins of Michigan, his sister Galdys Anderson of Illinois. He also leaves to mourn his sisters-in-law Shirley from Mississippi, Malvina Johnson of North Carolina, Eva Stilley and Lendora Credle of New York. He leaves a host of nieces and nephews, family and friends.

He was the kind of man that was always helping others and never wanted to be a burden on others. A kind man that was well loved by all. Always smiling he will be greatly missed and loved forever.

*Don't cry for me,
I will be okay.
Heaven is my home now,
and this is where I'll stay.
Don't cry for me,
I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy
and try to stay strong.
Don't cry for me,
It was just my time.
But I will see you someday
on the other side.
Don't cry for me,
I am not alone.
The angels are with me
to welcome me home.
Don't cry for me,
for I have no fear.
All my pain is gone,
and Jesus took my tears.
Don't cry for me,
this is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you,
when we meet again.*
