Obsequies

Bessie Lee Massey was born on November 20, 1942 in Brooklyn, NY to the late Bishop Arbie Deadwyler and Georgianna Bush Deadwyler. She was one of three beautiful, and talented daughters blessed to this union.

She met and married her high school sweetheart, Harry W. Massey. This union was blessed with a star, Cardrian Massey.

Dottie worked for the United States Postal Service for forty-five years before retiring. She served in the capacity of Quality Assurance Technician, many love her there. She was also a Shop Stewardess with the United States Postal Workers Union.

Bessie “Dottie” was a loving and compassionate woman of God. A courageous, smiling soul,, she would give her most to least.

She was reared in a strong Pentecostal home. She never left her roots, a lover of the Lord. Dottie had a uniqueness about her, an untiring worker in the vineyard. She got her early start in her daddy’s church, Mt. Olive Pentecostal of Faith Church in Jersey City, NJ. She continued on in the ministry serving as a choir member for the Angelic Choir under the auspices of Dr. Lawrence Roberts, formerly of Nutley, NJ. After moving to St. Paul, Minnesota, she served as a Chapter Representative for the Twin Cities Chapter of Gospel Music Workshop of America (GMWA). She was also a member of the Ushers’ Guild, Women’s and Mass Choir and a host of other auxiliaries under the GMWA.

Bessie Lee Massey, she fought a good fight, she have finished her course, Lord knows she have kept the faith. She has now earned her crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge shall give to her on that day. Not only to her but to all them that love his appearing.

Dottie leaves to cherish precious memories her one and only loving daughter, Cardrian Massey; two grandchildren, Brendan Oliver Massey and Nyota Sabrina Howell-Massey; three great grandchildren, Jayden Khalil Howell-Massey, Kennedi Katelynn Massey and Jaxson Oliver Massey; two loving sisters, Gertrude Hicks and Williemay Tucker; and host of other loving relatives, Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church, GWMA family and countless friends.

Final Viewing

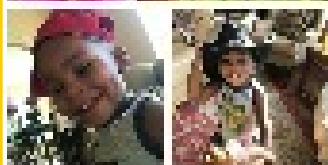

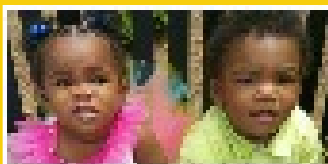

Recessional

2 Timothy 4:6-8

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
