Unforgettable Moments

It seemed so strange when we all met,
Yet the timing was perfect one I shall never forget.
You were so mild mannered, soft spoken and kind,
A gentleman from the door one so rarely you find.
One of the nicest of persons my sisters and I met,
So very respectful and quiet one never could forget.
You spoke with such wisdom and we listened with care,
You so matter of factly drew near all that was there.

Many years went by with such pleasant air,
Everyone in your presence loved having you near.
Now the message came Monday morning, and I sat in disbelief,
Yet I thanked God for our friendship and his giving you relief.

Now rest my friend, with no more time to keep
I Pray you are resting in God's arms as you sleep.
