Life Reflections

Lindsay Steward Awkward, Sr. was born on September 5, 1937 in Avon, Virginia, son of the late James and Chassie Awkward. Lindsay was a believer who accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. On Friday, February 24, 2017, marked the end of an earthly sojourn for Lindsay Steward Awkward, Sr., but the beginning of eternal life with his Redeemer.

Lindsay was educated in the Avon Public School system. At an early age, he moved to Elizabeth, New Jersey and worked with several construction companies. He enjoyed all aspects of construction work. Eventually, Lindsay became self-employed, and worked with his brother, George Awkward.

Lindsay was a meticulous and methodical person in almost every aspect of his life and work. He adored and loved his siblings all eleven of them. Everyone who knew him will remember that he called everyone “Charlie.”

Lindsay married Connie and with this union, they had five children.

He leaves to mourn precious memories, his four sons: Lindsay S. Awkward, Jr., Pernell Murray, De Lafayette Awkward, and Lindsay R. Barnes; six daughters: Elaine Awkward, Linda Awkward, Geneva Keith, Lindora Awkward, Darlette Strother, and Adrienne Gold; four sisters: Gladys Bell, Deloris Bell, Shirley Lyles, and Chassie White; brother, George Awkward; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members and friends.

Humbly submitted,

“Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service”

“New Address”

My address has changed.
I no longer live in my house
I will now live with Jesus
I got me a new address
No more pain, no more doctors’ prescriptions
To be filed and no more pills to take
I now have a new address
But, I’m not worried
Because I brought me a piece of land
A long, long time ago, made by Jesus’ hand
Family and friends. Please don’t worry about me
Because I made my plans to live with Jesus
A long time ago.
