Obituary

Gloria Gilliam was born April 7, 1963 to the late Alvina Gilliam and Wirt H. Gilliam, Sr. She attended the Elizabeth Public School System, and she worked for Walmart as a Department Manager for 11 years before becoming ill. She enjoyed working and was loved by her customers and her employees. She loved going to Atlantic City and doing scratch offs. After a hard day's work you could always catch her in her window listening to her 'Oldie but Goodies'. What Gloria loved most was spending time with her family. She loved her kids dearly. Gloria was a very reserved and private person. She was also straightforward and honest, which most people valued. Her bright personality and beautiful smile will be missed.

She was predeceased by her first and only love, the late Tyrone Howell, and her sisters Wanda Gilliam and Diane Gilliam. She leaves to cherish her memory her children Tyquan Howell, Tyrone Howell, Jamhal Howell, Karheem Howell, Jasmine Howell, Ishmil Howell, Moesha Gilliam, and Jacarl Gilliam; 14 grandchildren; her sisters, Gomeria Johnson, Daisy Gilliam, Cheryl Ann Johnson, her brothers, Tyrone Johnson, Jerome Johnson, Randolph Gilliam, William Earl Johnson, Wirt H. Gilliam, Jr., Allen Hayes, and a host of nieces, nephews, dear relatives and friends.

God saw that you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms
Around you and whispered,
“Come home with Me.”
With tearful eyes we watched you,
And saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest.
We know you made great sacrifices.
And gave your very best.

Acknowledgement
