Obituary

Daisy Lee Carter, the daughter of the late Len and Eleanor Carter was born on August 3, 1935 in Brooknegele, Virginia.

Daisy was blessed and grateful to live a long life and worked hard each and every day until sickness overcame her.

She accepted Christ at an early age and joined with her faith at the Baptist Church. She served so well. After she graduated from school in Washington, DC, she moved to New York City and made her home and raised her four children.

Daisy was a dedicated employee of The Visiting Nurse Service of New York, Home Attendant Program for a long time, she earned numerous certificates along the way.

Daisy was a strong supporter of the Babylonian Lodge Number 43, Masonic Temple Organization with her brother and sister-in-law.

She leave to cherish her memories: her daughter, Quinette Carter; her son, Albert Lee Carter; her brother, George Carter; her sister, Emma Carter; her grandchildren, Bobby, Dalilah and Samson; seven great grandchildren; and her forever to the end sister-in-law, Jennie Carter.

Psalm 55:16-17

*As for me,
I will call upon God,
and the Lord shall save me.
Evening and morning
and at noon
I will pray and cry aloud.
And He shall hear my voice.*

*"In these difficult times,
instead of crying I will rejoice, for now I am one of your children. You are preparing me for glorious things and I eagerly accept your gift. I know you would not burden me with more than I can bear. I will survive this crisis and be strengthened by your love."*
