Obituary

Andrea Victorine Fudge affectionately known as “Fudgie” and “Lady Fudge” was born on September 19, 1944 in Colon, Republic of Panama to Clinton Forbes and Agnes Williams.

Andrea came to the United States of America, attended and was a graduate of Central High School in Newark, New Jersey.

Andrea was married to the late Alonza Fudge and they became the proud parents of two sons, Matthew and Michael Fudge.

Andrea was employed by FedEx in Newark, New Jersey and United Hospital in Newark, New Jersey for several years.

Andrea studied the Bible with Jehovah’s Witnesses and on April 26, 1958 she symbolized her dedication to Jehovah by getting baptized when she was 14 years old. She loyally served Jehovah for a total of 58 years.

Andrea became a full-time Pioneer on September 1, 1995 and will always be remembered for her faith and love for Jehovah God and her great zeal and enthusiasm for the full-time ministry! Her entire life revolved around her faithfully preaching the Good News of God’s Kingdom.

Andrea lived her life to the fullest while enjoying self-sufficiency until she became ill, ultimately passing away peacefully on Saturday, March 4, 2017, surrounded by her loving family and friends.

Andrea will be missed by all who knew and loved her, leaving behind many who look forward to seeing her again.

Andrea was preceded in death by her late husband, Alonza Fudge. She leaves behind to cherish her memories, her brother Kipling Forbes, her two sons Matthew Fudge and Michael Fudge and his wife Oslin Fudge, two grandsons, Gavin Jacobs and his wife Sasha and Devon Jacobs and his wife Saskia, along with a host of relatives and dear friends.

Order of Service

Kingdom Melody No. 146

“Making All Things New”

(Revelation 21:1-5)

1. “The signs of the times” prove God’s rule has begun. In glory enthroned sits Jehovah’s Son.
The heavens are cleansed, Satan’s now debased, And soon on the earth let God’s will take place.

(CHORUS)

Rejoice! For God’s tent is with men, And he himself resides with them. No more will there be pain or worrying, No sting of death nor any sorrowing. For God has said: ‘I’m making all things new.’ These words faithful are and true.

2. Let all men the pure New Jerusalem see, The bride of the Lamb shining radiantly. Adorned for her husband in gems so bright, And only Jehovah will be her light.

(Chorus)

3. This city so grand will become a delight. Its gates will be open both day and night. The nations will walk in her glory bright; The servants of God now reflect that light.

(Chorus)

(See also Matt. 16:3; Rev. 12:7-9; 21:23-25.)

He Will Call

(Job 14:13-15)

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day, Then disappears tomorrow. All that we are can quickly fade away, Replaced with tears and sorrow. If a man should die, can he live again?

Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command. For he will have a longing For the work of his own hand. So have faith, and do not wonder, For our God can make us stand. And we will live forever, As the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away, Will never be forsaken. All those asleep who in God’s mem’ry stay, From death he will awaken. Then we’ll come to see all that life can be: Paradise eternally.

(Chorus)

Precious Memories

“With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”
