Obituary

Andrew Wilcher was born September 9, 1943 to the late parents of James and Francis Wilcher.

He went to the Newark Public School system. After finishing school, he went to work for South Orange Sanitation Department for 35 years as a Truck Driver before retiring. He later moved to Jacksonville, Florida where he resided for nine years until his death. He also worked along with his deceased brother and sister, Norman and Christine at Club Ronnie and ran a baseball team called the Old Timers.

Andrew a hard working guy, he was happy go lucky kind of man, he was always smiling and joking. He was a very loving husband and father and was always there when someone needed him.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Cynthia Wilcher; his three sons, Andrew, Keith, Jason; six grandchildren, Marcus, Andrew, Keshawn, little Keith, Shawn and Nikiyah; four great grandchildren; one daughter-in-law, Zena; four sister-in-law, Jean, Gale, Pamela and Patty; three nieces, Fran, Linda, Unique; one nephew, Robert; and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.
