Obituary

On the morning of March 25, 2017, when his Lord and Savior saw the battle with cancer had become too painful, He reached down to guide his son, Gregory Ross home.

Our beloved Gregory was born on March 8, 1955, to his proud parents, the late Henry and Margret Ross. He was educated in the school system of New York City, and was successfully able to obtain a High School Diploma from Alfred E. Smith in 1974. Gregory joined the Armed Forces of the United States Navy and after serving his country from 1974-1975, he returned home to be reunited with his childhood sweetheart, Pearl Dixon. They became the proud parents of their firstborn child in 1976, (daughter) Ebony, and they were blessed with the birth of their second child in 1979, (son) Gregory, Jr.

In the early 1980's, Gregory obtained employment with the NYC Department of Motor Vehicles where he remained employed until his departure.

Gregory had a large and loving family who he leaves to cherish his memory and all of the good times that they shared together: (daughter) Ebony Dixon; (son) Gregory Dixon; (brothers) Timothy Ross, Sr. and Rodney Ross; (nephews) De'Shante Lewis "Moonie" and Timothy Ross, Jr. "Tim-Tim" and Michael Ross; (nieces) Lawanda Ross and Dania Lewis; (paternal aunts) Doris Lanier and Margarite Thompson; (cousins) Sarah Scott, James Scott "Butt Nose", Keith Lanier, Charlene Lanier and Monica Thompson; and a vast number of grand and great nephews and nieces.

Gregory transcended from this life into the gates of heaven to join his father and mother, the late Henry Ross and Margret Ross, and his brothers, the late Jeffery Ross and Cedric (Leslie) Ross. Gregory will rest peacefully in his Lord and Savior's home until he is reunited with his loved ones who was left behind to carry on.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
