OBITUARY

Kevin Jerome Hopkins was born on October 29, 1958 in Manhattan, New York to the late Tyler Hopkins and Leonora Simpson. He had one brother, Anthony Hopkins.

Kevin was educated at PS 200, JHS 10 and Washington Irving High School.

Throughout Kevin's life, he was a kind, loving, and peaceful husband. He was faithfully dedicated to his wife. He was an easygoing individual and he enjoyed fishing. I know for a fact he would have loved to take his boys fishing, horseback riding and other activities.

Kevin is a warrior. He leaves to mourn: his two boys, Davonte Kevin Riley and Aiden Isiah Riley; wife, Cynthia Riley; along with Quinisha Riley and Juannell Riley; one brother, Anthony Hopkins; grandmother, Nattie Riley; and a host of nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews.

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave". The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you".
