Obituary

Stephanie Darlene Knight born on October 19th, 1958, at Metropolitan Hospital in New York City was the third child of Susan and John Clarke (Both preceded her in death).

Stephanie attended the New York City Public School System. At the age of 18, she met Julian Mandell Knight and formed a union until the time of her death. From this union they had two children, a son Terrell Mandell Knight and daughter, Nicole Kelly Knight (who fell asleep in death).

Stephanie was always known to be a upbeat kind of person, who would say things not meant to be funny, but would just come off in a humorous manner. Steps, work experience extended into the area of social service, an area of work she enjoyed and loved until her illness.

Stephanie was a family oriented person, who believed loved her family entirely. Family gatherings were something she really adored. She also had a passion for creative crafts designs and baking.

She leaved to mourn her husband, Julian Knight, her son Terrell Knight, and her two grandsons, Joshua and Hunter, the two biggest apples of her eyes. A sister, Christine Hawkins; Brother in law, Roger Hawkins of Yonkers, NY, brother John H. Clarke of Boston, Ma, sister Michele Richards, of New York, NY, sister in law, Alicia Justice of Atlanta, GA, brother in law, Ronald Knight, sister in law Gladys Knight of New Jersey. A host of nieces, nephews, and cousins and friends. A special sister friend Laverne.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
